

Curriculum Vitae.

Julieth Julius Tibanywana

Contact Information

Email: julieth@udsm.ac.tz No: +255713027224 Address: Dar es Salaam, Tanzania

Profile Summary

Experienced academic and researcher specialising in natural resource economics, public finance, and quantitative methods. Passionate about sustainable development, with extensive research, consultancy, and teaching experience in Tanzania and East Africa.

Education

- PhD in Economics (2025) – Univ. of Cape Town
- MA in Economics (2015) and BA in Economics (2013) – Univ. of Dar es Salaam

Key Research Projects

- Leveraging Voice-Based Digital Learning and Generative AI to Enhance Financial Literacy and Credit Uptake among MSME Owners,” funded by the Gates Foundation. A collaboration with Viamo PBC, a social enterprise working in mobile engagement and digital communication technologies, and the Digital Inclusion & Governance Lab (DIGLab) at the College of William & Mary.Co-PI in Tanzania
- A pilot survey exploring the Impact of Generative AI Tools in Tanzania. PI in Tanzania
- Water Scarcity & Behavioural Interventions in Tanzania 2020-2025. PI in Tanzania
- Impact of Carbon Trading on Mangrove Ecosystems in East Africa 2022 - 2026: PI
- Climate Change Feedback Effects on Payments for Ecosystem Service Contract Adherence: The target is Mangrove forests. 2024-2027: PI in Tanzania
- Power Outages & SME Productivity in Tanzania: 2019-2023.Co-PI in Tanzania

Successful Grants

- Efd Grants: Funded projects on 1. electricity reliability 2. Carbon trading schemes 3.Stated preferences and survey consequentiality in discrete choice experiments.
- A grant from the Economic and Social Research Foundation: Funding for a randomised control trial on water-saving behaviour in Dar es Salaam.
- GEOCEP Grant: Fellowship to participate in a secondment program as a research student at the London School of Economics and Political Science in the United Kingdom and Charles University in the Czech Republic.

Referees

Razack Lokina, Associate Professor, Univ. of Dodoma – razack_lokina@yahoo.co.uk
Aikaeli Jehovanness, Associate Professor, Univ. of Dar es Salaam – jaikaeli@yahoo.com |
Edwin Muchapondwa, Professor, Uni. of Cape Town, South Africa.
edwin.muchapondwa@uct.ac.za